Summer 2017

CSRDE Webinars (Consortium for Student Retention Data Exchange)

July 12, 2017 - Personal Financial Education as a Means to Increase the Likelihood of Persistence, Student Success, and Confidence

This webinar reviews the importance of financial literacy and overall student success, and documents changes in knowledge, confidence and behavior with the utilization of one online program. A discussion of how schools can approach this issue – in both integrative and substantive ways – provides suggestions for direction and success.

Location: CSEL-115 Time: 2:00-3:15pm

August 9, 2017 - The Path To 50%: Improving Student Success At A Regional Public University

This webinar will describe The University of South Alabama's course of action and present data related to specific elements, discuss items that appear to be “game changers” for student academic success and share what appear to be key elements in the change process and how to capitalize on those for quick wins in the student success arena.

Location: Teaching Academy 301 Time: 2:00-3:15pm
